

Stability of alpha and beta metrics along a 1%–20% identification-error gradient

Stability is the Spearman correlation with the species-level baseline.

